

Boomerang thrown in the city

ABORIGINAL Bill Onus preparing to send a boomerang skimming round the city skyline from the roof of Foy's, Bourke Street, at lunchtime today. Some of the staff went to the rooftop to see the fun, but no one in the street below was any the wiser. Each time the boomerang was thrown, it returned to the thrower's feet.